Application for Services

If you need help filling out this application or have any questions, please let us know.
We are always happy to assist.

How To Apply for Services

On the following page you will find a group of check boxes for services that are available to enrolled Tribal Citizens and provided by Central Council Tlingit & Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska (Tlingit & Haida). Select the types of service that you feel will best meet your needs by checking the box to the left of the service. If you are not sure, don't worry, this application is designed to help us determine which service would work best for your specific needs.

What You Should Do After Selecting Your Desired Services

Once you check all the services that you need, enter your information in the "Required Personal Information" and "Household Members" sections that follow. This information will be utilized to begin the intake process of your application. After you have provided the remaining information requested, you may submit your application to the General Assistance office.

An Intake Technician will review your application and contact you to discuss the status of your application. At this time, we may request proof of, tribal enrollment/certificate of Indian blood (CIB), current identification, birth certificate, social security card, and supporting documentation to better assist in determining eligibility. This information is required to enable us to provide a service that best fits your needs.

NOTE: If any portion of the application does not apply to you, please mark it with N/A (not applicable). Don't forget, on the day of submitting application check for signatures and dates.

How Long Will It Take?

Applications are processed in the order in which they are received. If an Intake Technician has not contacted you within five business days, please contact the General Assistance office.

Applicant/Client Appeal Procedure

A client who is denied or received a reduction of services or benefits has the right to file a written appeal by following these procedures. Determination of client services or benefits are made based on a review of program policies, procedures and the required official documentation.

Step 1 – Client

- A client has ten (10) working days from the date of receipt of a decision to submit a written appeal to the Program Supervisor or his/her designee.
- A client outside of Juneau must have their written appeal postmarked within ten (10) working days from the date of receipt of a decision.
- A client may request another person to be present at meetings or interviews. The client must notify the Program Manager or designee who this person is, contact information, and their role.²

Step 2 – Program Director/Manager

- The Program Director/Manager or his/her designee, in consultation with subordinate staff, will make every effort to review documentation and make a decision in the shortest amount of time possible and not to exceed five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the appeal.
- A client not satisfied with the department or program’s decision may submit a written request within five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the decision to the Program Compliance Manager or his/her designee to have their appeal reviewed by the Appeals Committee.

Step 3 - Appeals Committee

- A client must complete Step 1 before the Program Compliance Manager will consider a referral to the Appeals Committee.
- The Appeals Committee will review appeals within five (5) working days of receipt.
- The client will be notified of the Appeals Committee's decision within one (2) working days after the date of its meeting.
- All decisions of the Appeals Committee are final.

Step 4 - Appeals WIA/WIOA Clients

- Only applies to clients applying for WIA/WIOA funds. Questions about our complaints alleging a violation of the nondiscrimination provisions of WIA 181 may be directed or mailed directly to the Director, Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-4123, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20210 for processing.
